PIONEERS

Making new music happen

Join us

London Sinfonietta

The creation of new music lies at the very heart of the London Sinfonietta. Bold and incurably ambitious, the London Sinfonietta champions some of today's finest composers, encourages young composers to develop their work in extraordinary new directions, and paves the way for some of the most inspiring performances for audiences the world over.

Pioneers

The greatest discoveries rely on the commitment, generosity and vision of a passionate group of supporters. Our imagination is unlimited, but our funds are not. London Sinfonietta Pioneers play a crucial role in making new music happen. They provide invaluable support for brand new commissions, world premiere performances and ground-breaking projects. In return we provide our Pioneers with opportunities to form a close association with the ensemble and be part of the creative journey with us.
